

YOUR CALLING

CONNECT

- When you think about the word “calling,” what comes to mind first? Career? Family? Ministry? Something else?

READ MATTHEW 4:18-22

- Jesus says, “I will make you fishers of men.” What does that tell us about our primary purpose as followers of Jesus?
 - Do you think you have embraced that purpose in your life yet? Why or why not?
1. Drop the nets.
 - The disciples immediately left their nets. What might “nets” represent in our lives today? Security? Comfort? Reputation? Money? Control?
 - In what ways can we follow Jesus, but still try to “bring our nets” with us?
 - When was the last time your heart genuinely broke for someone who does not know Jesus?
 - Who are you praying for to come to know Jesus?
 2. Embrace the urgency.
 - Be honest—what do your daily prayers reveal about what matters most to you?
 - What keeps you from living with more urgency?
 3. Get out there.
 - What are some signs that a Christian, or even a church, has turned inward instead of outward?
 - What ways can we, as a group, trend towards being inward vs outward?

SO WHAT?

- How does our Hoist The Sail initiative connect to Jesus’ mission to fish for people?
- Who has God already placed in your life that could be your “next fish”? A neighbor, coworker, family member, teammate, etc?
